

FICE YOUTH 2010

Celebrating the Voices of Youth in a Diverse World

FICE YOUTH 2010

GUIDELINES

FICE YOUTH 2010

Celebrating the Voices of Youth in a Diverse World

GUIDELINES

GOVERNMENT MUST BUDGET FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS!

- Government should pay for Education, Transportation and Food
- Low fees schools with qualified teachers
- Young people should have Health Care
- Children should be living in a clean environment
- Shelter, Capital/Houses and Residential Care Facilities

- Children should have privacy, and own rooms
- Increase social relief projects and establish income generating projects
- Children should be provided with Social and Recreational Activities
- More Police and Social Workers
- Life Centres and Family Support Centre must be developed

FICE YOUTH 2010

Celebrating the Voices of Youth in a Diverse World

GUIDELINES

GOVERNMENT MUST BUDGET FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS!

- Children should have privacy, and own rooms
- Increase social relief projects and establish income generating projects
- Children should be provided with Social and Recreational Activities
- More Police and Social Workers
- Life Centres and Family Support Centre must be developed

KEEPING FAMILIES TOGETHER

- Extended Families should be considered first
- Offer Parents help with addictions and if there is abuse it should be reported
- Family days should be promoted
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists

- Government should pay for Education, Transportation and Food
- Low fees schools with qualified teachers
- Young people should have Health Care
- Children should be living in a clean environment
- Shelter, Capital/Houses and Residential Care Facilities

- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists
- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families

FICE YOUTH 2010

Celebrating the Voices of Youth in a Diverse World

GUIDELINES

GOVERNMENT MUST BUDGET FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS!

- Children should have privacy, and own rooms
- Increase social relief projects and establish income generating projects
- Children should be provided with Social and Recreational Activities
- More Police and Social Workers
- Life Centres and Family Support Centre must be developed

KEEPING FAMILIES TOGETHER

- Extended Families should be considered first
- Offer Parents help with addictions and if there is abuse it should be reported
- Family days should be promoted
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists

SUPPORT TO PARENTS

- Work Opportunities and Workshops
- Empower Parents with Skills to be better parents
- Provide Families in Distress with Housing
- Increase Social Grant
- Hire Qualified Guardians to take care of Child Headed Households
- Engage Communities to take more Responsibility

- Government should pay for Education, Transportation and Food
- Low fees schools with qualified teachers
- Young people should have Health Care
- Children should be living in a clean environment
- Shelter, Capital/Houses and Residential Care Facilities

- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists
- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families

Celebrating the Voices of Youth in a Diverse World

- Provide Prevention Programmes for Families to prevent abuse
- Make sure to Stabilise Parents so they are able to stabilise the children
- Provide Kindergarten and Day Care Centres so that Mothers can work
- Unannounced visits to make sure the needs of the young people are met
- Educating Parents, teachers and Communities on other forms of abuse
- Psychological Support for Parents who are not fit or underage should be provided

GUIDELINES

GOVERNMENT MUST BUDGET FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS!

- Children should have privacy, and own rooms
- Increase social relief projects and establish income generating projects
- Children should be provided with Social and Recreational Activities
- More Police and Social Workers
- Life Centres and Family Support Centre must be developed

KEEPING FAMILIES TOGETHER

- Extended Families should be considered first
- Offer Parents help with addictions and if there is abuse it should be reported
- Family days should be promoted
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists

SUPPORT TO PARENTS

- Work Opportunities and Workshops
- Empower Parents with Skills to be better parents
- Provide Families in Distress with Housing
- Increase Social Grant
- Hire Qualified Guardians to take care of Child Headed Households
- Engage Communities to take more Responsibility

- Government should pay for Education, Transportation and Food
- Low fees schools with qualified teachers
- Young people should have Health Care
- Children should be living in a clean environment
- Shelter, Capital/Houses and Residential Care Facilities

- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists
- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families

APPROPRIATE ALTERNATIVE CARE

- There should be child care workers and other professionals who resolve problems
- Foster parents should be investigated before children are sent to them
- There should be contact with the family

- Young people should have good individual psychological care
- The Place needs to be Safe and Comfortable
- There should be emotional care and positive influence
- The child needs to be involved in decision making

- Provide Prevention Programmes for Families to prevent abuse
- Make sure to Stabilise Parents so they are able to stabilise the children
- Provide Kindergarden and Day Care Centres so that Mothers can work
- Unannounced visits to make sure the needs of the young people are met
- Educate Parents, teachers and Communities on other forms of abuse
- Psychological Support for Parents who are not fit or underage should be provided

GUIDELINES

GOVERNMENT MUST BUDGET FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS!

- Children should have privacy, and own rooms
- Increase social relief projects and establish income generating projects
- Children should be provided with Social and Recreational Activities
- More Police and Social Workers
- Life Centres and Family Support Centre must be developed

KEEPING FAMILIES TOGETHER

- Extended Families should be considered first
- Offer Parents help with addictions and if there is abuse it should be reported
- Family days should be promoted
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists

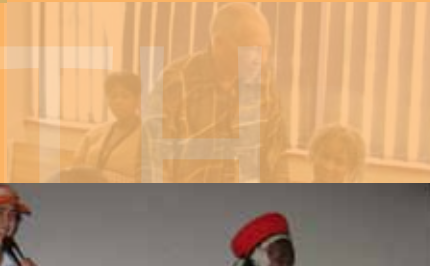

SUPPORT TO PARENTS

- Work Opportunities and Workshops
- Empower Parents with Skills to be better parents
- Provide Families in Distress with Housing
- Increase Social Grant
- Hire Qualified Guardians to take care of Child Headed Households
- Engage Communities to take more Responsibility

- Government should pay for Education, Transportation and Food
- Low fees schools with qualified teachers
- Young people should have Health Care
- Children should be living in a clean environment
- Shelter, Capital/Houses and Residential Care Facilities

- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists
- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families

APPROPRIATE ALTERNATIVE CARE

- There should be child care workers and other professionals who resolve problems
- Foster parents should be investigated before children are sent to them
- There should be contact with the family

DIFFERENT OF CARE

- Young people should have good individual psychological care
- The Place needs to be Safe and Comfortable
- There should be emotional care and positive influence
- The child needs to be involved in decision making

- Provide Prevention Programmes for Families to prevent abuse
- Make sure to Stabilise Parents so they are able to stabilise the children
- Provide Kindergarden and Day Care Centres so that Mothers can work
- Unannounced visits to make sure the needs of the young people are met
- Educating Parents, teachers and Communities on other forms of abuse
- Psychological Support for Parents who are not fit or underage should be provided

GUIDELINES

Recognise Me.....

Listen to me

Talk with me not to me

Trust me

Take time for me

Take me serious

Build the future with me

Let me do it alone, and support me when I need it

Teach me how to develop myself

Believe in me

Let me be of worth

Celebrating the Voices of Youth in a Diverse World

GUIDELINES

GOVERNMENT MUST BUDGET FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS!

- Children should have privacy, and own rooms
- Increase social relief projects and establish income generating projects
- Children should be provided with Social and Recreational Activities
- More Police and Social Workers
- Life Centres and Family Support Centre must be developed

KEEPING FAMILIES TOGETHER

- Extended Families should be considered first
- Offer Parents help with addictions and if there is abuse it should be reported
- Family days should be promoted
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists

SUPPORT TO PARENTS

- Work Opportunities and Workshops
- Empower Parents with Skills to be better parents
- Provide Families in Distress with Housing
- Increase Social Grant
- Hire Qualified Guardians to take care of Child Headed Households
- Engage Communities to take more Responsibility

- Government should pay for Education, Transportation and Food
- Low fees schools with qualified teachers
- Young people should have Health Care
- Children should be living in a clean environment
- Shelter, Capital/Houses and Residential Care Facilities

- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists
- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families

APPROPRIATE ALTERNATIVE CARE

- There should be child care workers and other professionals who resolve problems
- Foster parents should be investigated before children are sent to them
- There should be contact with the family

DIFFERENT TYPES OF CARE

- Alternative Care must suit the needs of the child
- All children in Alternative Care should make contact with their parents
- There should be money available for different Educational programs
- Young people should be placed with trained staff who are capable to meet their needs
- The care will depend on the needs of the child

- Young people should have good individual psychological care
- The Place needs to be Safe and Comfortable
- There should be emotional care and positive influence
- The child needs to be involved in decision making

- Young people should have the right to practise their own religion
- there should be equal treatment regardless of race, gender and status
- There should respect for other peoples language

RECOGNISING DIVERSITY

- Provide Prevention Programmes for Families to prevent abuse
- Make sure to Stabilise Parents so they are able to stabilise the children
- Provide Kindergarten and Day Care Centres so that Mothers can work
- Unannounced visits to make sure the needs of the young people are met
- Educating Parents, teachers and Communities on other forms of abuse
- Psychological Support for Parents who are not fit or underage should be provided

RECOGNISE ME!

- Child and Youth Care Workers should be trained to deal with young people with special needs Eg. Disability
- There should be safety and security for all
- Alternative Care should be evaluated and children interviewed to find out if they are happy or not

GUIDELINES

GOVERNMENT MUST BUDGET FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS!

- Children should have privacy, and own rooms
- Increase social relief projects and establish income generating projects
- Children should be provided with Social and Recreational Activities
- More Police and Social Workers
- Life Centres and Family Support Centre must be developed

KEEPING FAMILIES TOGETHER

- Extended Families should be considered first
- Offer Parents help with addictions and if there is abuse it should be reported
- Family days should be promoted
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists

SUPPORT TO PARENTS

- Work Opportunities and Workshops
- Empower Parents with Skills to be better parents
- Provide Families in Distress with Housing
- Increase Social Grant
- Hire Qualified Guardians to take care of Child Headed Households
- Engage Communities to take more Responsibility

- Government should pay for Education, Transportation and Food
- Low fees schools with qualified teachers
- Young people should have Health Care
- Children should be living in a clean environment
- Shelter, Capital/Houses and Residential Care Facilities

- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists
- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families

APPROPRIATE ALTERNATIVE CARE

- There should be child care workers and other professionals who resolve problems
- Foster parents should be investigated before children are sent to them
- There should be contact with the family

DIFFERENT TYPES OF CARE

- Alternative Care must suit the needs of the child
- All children in Alternative Care should make contact with their parents
- There should be money available for different Educational programs
- Young people should be placed with trained staff who are capable to meet their needs
- The care will depend on the needs of the child

- Young people should have good individual psychological care
- The Place needs to be Safe and Comfortable
- There should be emotional care and positive influence
- The child needs to be involved in decision making

- Young people should have the right to practise their own religion
- there should be equal treatment regardless of race, gender and status
- There should respect for other peoples language

RECOGNISING DIVERSITY

- Provide Prevention Programmes for Families to prevent abuse
- Make sure to Stabilise Parents so they are able to stabilise the children
- Provide Kindergarden and Day Care Centres so that Mothers can work
- Unannounced visits to make sure the needs of the young people are met
- Educating Parents, teachers and Communities on other forms of abuse
- Psychological Support for Parents who are not fit or underage should be provided

RECOGNISE ME!

REUNIFY WITH FAMILIES

- Child and Youth Care Workers should be trained to deal with young people with special needs Eg. Disability
- There should be safety and security for all
- Alternative Care should be evaluated and children interviewed to find out if they are happy or not

GUIDELINES

GOVERNMENT MUST BUDGET FOR CHILDREN'S RIGHTS!

- Children should have privacy, and own rooms
- Increase social relief projects and establish income generating projects
- Children should be provided with Social and Recreational Activities
- More Police and Social Workers
- Life Centres and Family Support Centre must be developed

- Government should pay for Education, Transportation and Food
- Low fees schools with qualified teachers
- Young people should have Health Care
- Children should be living in a clean environment
- Shelter, Capital/Houses and Residential Care Facilities

- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists
- The Multi-Disciplinary Team should use all their power to aid and heal the families

- Extended Families should be considered first
- Offer Parents help with addictions and if there is abuse it should be reported
- Family days should be promoted
- Employ highly trained social workers and psychologists

- Work Opportunities and Workshops
- Empower Parents with Skills to be better parents
- Provide Families in Distress with Housing
- Increase Social Grant
- Hire Qualified Guardians to take care of Child Headed Households
- Engage Communities to take more Responsibility

- There should be child care workers and other professionals who resolve problems
- Foster parents should be investigated before children are sent to them
- There should be contact with the family

- Alternative Care must suit the needs of the child
- All children in Alternative Care should make contact with their parents
- There should be money available for different Educational programs
- Young people should be placed with trained staff who are capable to meet their needs
- The care will depend on the needs of the child

- Young people should have good individual psychological care
- The Place needs to be Safe and Comfortable
- There should be emotional care and positive influence
- The child needs to be involved in decision making

- Young people should have the right to practise their own religion
- there should be equal treatment regardless of race, gender and status
- There should respect for other peoples language

RECOGNISING DIVERSITY

- Provide Prevention Programmes for Families to prevent abuse
- Make sure to Stabilise Parents so they are able to stabilise the children
- Provide Kindergarden and Day Care Centres so that Mothers can work
- Unannounced visits to make sure the needs of the young people are met
- Educating Parents, teachers and Communities on other forms of abuse
- Psychological Support for Parents who are not fit or underage should be provided

RECOGNISE ME!

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

REUNIFY WITH FAMILIES

- Child and Youth Care Workers should be trained to deal with young people with special needs Eg. Disability
- There should be safety and security for all
- Alternative Care should be evaluated and children interviewed to find out if they are happy or not

THANK YOU

FICE YOUTH 2010

Celebrating the Voices of Youth in a Diverse World

